

THEATRE 3

TIME	TITLE	SPEAKER
10.00 - 10.45	THE FUTURE OF REFRIGERANTS Graeme will discuss handling alternative refrigerants and compliance with safety standards. He will cover; the increasing number of ultra-low GWP refrigerants on the market, price fluctuations and how to ensure you remain compliant with DSEAR and E378 safety issues.	Graeme Fox - REFCOM
10.45 - 11.15	MORNING BREAK
11.15 - 11.45	ENGINEERING THE FUTURE In this session Chis will discuss the importance of engaging pupils early and providing opportunities for pupils, teachers and parents to understand the breadth of engineering and how advocating engineering in particular ways will help to increase diversity.	Chris Rochester – Primary Engineer
11.45 - 12.15	FUTURE LEADERS Join the BESA Future Leaders to discover what the group is all about, an update on their work, their core aims and how you can get involved to benefit from their work.	Reanna Evans – Chair of Future Leaders
12.15 - 12.30	SWEGON This CIBSE accredited seminar outlines the critical need to understand and comply with tested methods when selecting, installing and using fire and fire/smoke dampers.	Peter Faruqi Swegon
13.30 - 14.00	5 STEPS TO SOCIAL MEDIA STRATEGY An introduction into Social Media as a marketing and lead generation tool for construction, plus five key steps for an effective social and digital media strategy. This short talk will help you take a strategic approach to a practical tool which is generating new business for progressive companies in our sector.	Su Butcher- Just Practising

TIME	TITLE	SPEAKER
14.00 - 14.30	BUILDING MENTAL HEALTH Martin will share his insight into mental health, from the worlds of Construction, Sport and the Armed Forces. He will do his best to de-mystify the subject which is blighted by stigma and discrimination, and explain the opportunities for all in the Building Mental Health Framework.	Martin Coyd - MACE
14.30 - 15.00	BEST PRACTICE APPROACH TO SUPPORTS &amp; FIXINGS Supports and fixings for MEP services are a critically important but often an overlooked element of building services. Working in collaboration with various stakeholders NG Bailey have developed a best practice approach to the design, selection, installation and testing of all manner of supports & fixings for MEP services.	Will Pitt – NG Bailey
15.00 - 15.30	AFTERNOON BREAK
15.30 - 16.00	RESILIENCE - YOUR COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE This session will introduce you to a structured way to understand, measure and improve your organisation's resilience. It will give an introduction to organisational resilience thinking, how it can be used in practice by BESA members and an overview of some available tools.	Paul Hancock – 360 Business Resilience
16.00 - 16.30	12 MONTHS IN 30 MINUTES BESA training will be giving a whistle-stop tour of training over the last 12 months and look forward to what to expect in the coming year. The team will be ending the day with a bit of fun and games plus the film premiere of the new BESA careers video which will be used to promote a career in building engineering services.	Emma O'Neill - BESA Training