| 09.45 - 10.30 | BREXIT PANEL We are less than six months from the UK officially leaving the European Union. Whether or not you support Brexit, it's happening; and industry needs to be ready. The recent MAC report says that unskilled workers won't be missed, a no-deal is a constant possibility and who knows what is around the corner. We will examine important questions facing a post-EU construction industry. What of the regulatory impact? Has enough been done to protect skilled labour and movement? Will foreign investment plummet (or increase)? Will material prices continue to rise? What does this mean for delivering quality apprenticeships? And is Brexit actually a wonderful opportunity for the industry? This session will look at what's in store for the industry and give BESA members the chance to add their thoughts and directly interact with the panel. | Sarah McMonagle - Director of External Affairs at the Federation of Master Builders Thomas Cole - Head of Policy & Research for Open Britain Mark Farmer - Industry Guru and Founding Director & CEO of Cast Consulting Rt.
